

Alice van der Woude HOBART LOCAL & ODALISQUE'S FIRST MATE

What's your favourite place to go for a quiet drink?

I love having a cheeky glass of wine (or two) at Willing Bros. Despite how busy it can get, this talented crew always manage to find me a seat in some nook or cranny and that perfect glass of vino. Oh, and don't get me started on the cheese here.

Where do you go for a day out of the city?

For me, there's no better escape from the city than getting out on the water. We often head down the channel on our boat Odalisque for a day of sightseeing and adventuring. And there's nothing more refreshing than jumping off the boat into the water for a brisk, heart-starting swim.

Chris Crerar

Fave coffee haunt?

I can't look past Salamanca Wharf Café. Great service, delicious coffee. This place is a second home to me. You'll often find me tucked away in a cozy booth there, working away on some project, coffee in hand.

Best local secret?

The giant muffins at Machine Café. They're hu-uge. Just the right amount of crustiness on the top. It's the best place for refueling post-workout.

How would you spend a lazy weekend in Tasmania?

I'd head up to the shack at Bicheno, perched on the edge of the coast. Nothing beats sitting in front of a crackling fireplace with a glass of Tassie pinot and the smell of the ocean in the air.

Where would we find you on a dinner out?

My absolute favourite is Da Angelo's Ristorante. It's like the big mumma of all restaurants. Comforting, warm and always there when you need it.

Something we don't know about you?

Catch me in the right mood at a party and I might just whip out my signature breakdancing move – the worm!

